Health Care Proxy Form

Making decisions about your health

Whether to accept or reject medical care in an end-of-life situation is a very personal decision governed by your beliefs. Should a serious accident or illness leave you unable to relay your wishes, you need to ensure they are honored. In New York State, that means having a living will or health care proxy.

You can complete the attached health care proxy for your records. Once completed, hospitals, doctors, and other health care providers must follow your agent's decisions as if they were your own.

1) I, ______________________________ hereby appoint ______________________________
(name, home address and phone number) as my health care agent to make any and all health care decisions for me, except to the extent that I state otherwise. This proxy shall take effect when and if I become unable to make my own health care decisions.

2) Optional: Alternate Agent. If the person I appoint is unable, unwilling or unavailable to act as my health care agent, I hereby appoint:

3) Unless I revoke it or state an expiration date or circumstances under which it will expire, this proxy shall remain in effect indefinitely. (Optional: If you want this proxy to expire, state the date or conditions here.)

After signing your proxy

Give a copy to your agent, doctor, attorney and family members or close friends. Keep a copy with your important papers. You can contact my district office for more information. Do not put it in a location where no one else can get to it, like a safe deposit box. Be sure to bring a copy with you if you are admitted to the hospital, even for minor or out-patient surgery.
