Join me on Wednesday, April 2nd as we celebrate Women's History Month through poetry and spoken word performances by our talented High School students from Central Islip, Brentwood and Bay Shore, as well as performers from the Herstory Writers Workshop.

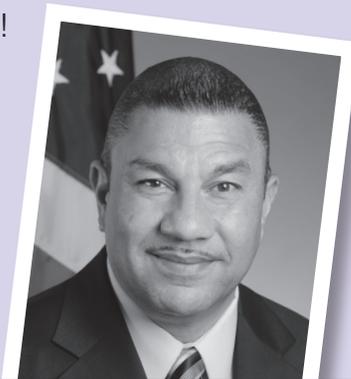

This free event is being generously hosted by the Boulton Center for the Performing Arts in Bay Shore, to allow our students the opportunity to perform their original material on a professional stage in celebration of Women's History Month.

We look forward to seeing you on April 2nd!

Sincerely,

Assemblyman Phil Ramos
