AS OUR ADVOCATE AND OUR VOICE IN ALBANY, ASSEMBLYWOMAN MISSY MILLER DELIVERED:

STANDING UP for the most vulnerable populations in our community

Assemblywoman Miller advocated for:

- $55 million to provide a fair and appropriate living wage for direct-care workers. (A.3007-B)
- Expanding accessibility to all beaches across New York for those relying on mobility devices. (A.8655)
- Establishing Family Support Navigators to assist families affected by developmental disabilities in understanding state programs, insurance questions, and housing opportunities. (A.5882)

CLEAN & RELIABLE DRINKING WATER is critical to keeping our families healthy and safe

Assemblywoman Miller fought for:

- $5 million for Bay Park Wastewater Treatment Facility. (A.3004-D)
- $2.5 billion to protect our water supplies and replace dangerous lead pipes that deliver water to our homes and schools. (A.3004-D)

The best future for our children starts with EDUCATION

Assemblywoman Miller supported:

- Providing $25.5 billion in education aid, a record investment in our schools. (A.3000-D)
- Increasing State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) funding for our college students to $1.1 billion, allowing more students to receive financial aid. (A.3003-D)
