Fighting every day for Northeast Queens families

Assemblyman Braunstein is working to build a stronger Northeast Queens

Putting more money in your pocket

- ✓ Provided much-needed tax relief to homeowners, condo, and co-op owners and renters by factoring in household income
- ✓ Increased stable, affordable housing for seniors by expanding the Senior Citizen Rent Increase Exemption (SCRIE) program
- ✓ Expanded eligibility for the EPIC deductible plan to help lower the cost of prescription medications
- ✓ Expanded access to quality, affordable child care to help parents balance work and family

Assemblyman Braunstein attended Queens Quiet Skies' Rally Against Airplane Noise.

Giving our children a brighter future

- ✓ Increased state aid to NYC schools by more than $435 million
- ✓ Secured $600 million over 2 years to create full-day Universal Pre-K so that all children start out on the right path
- ✓ Helped pass the Smart Schools Initiative, a $2 billion bond act that will help construct new pre-K classroom space and replace classroom trailers with permanent space
- ✓ Working to reduce overcrowding in schools so that our students can get the top-notch education they deserve

Assemblyman Braunstein fights street spam

Please join Assemblyman Braunstein's initiative to combat illegal ads proliferating throughout Northeast Queens. These signs and stickers, known as street spam, offer "Cash for Cars" and appear on public property. If you see any street spam, please contact Assemblyman Braunstein's office, which will request that the NYC Department of Sanitation remove the signs and fine the perpetrators.
