Assemblyman
Tom Abinanti

wants you to know...

...the Legislature passed
the Abinanti bill to help keep property taxes in check.

The Legislature passed the Abinanti bill to help keep property taxes in check.

Yonkers, White Plains, New Rochelle, Peekskill and Rye impose their own sales and hotel taxes – paid largely by out-of-towners – to help cover the costs of basic public services.

In Greenburgh, Tarrytown, Irvington, Dobbs Ferry, Hastings, Elmsford, Ardsley and Sleepy Hollow, we don't have our own sales tax or hotel tax. We have high property taxes!

That's not fair.

- ✓ Abinanti's bill (A.992) would let us impose a small 3% hotel room tax.
- ✓ Greenburgh alone could raise $1 million.
- ✓ Out-of-towners who stay in our hotels would contribute to the cost of the public services they use.

BUT THE GOVERNOR VETOED THE BILL.
