Assemblywoman Mary Beth Walsh made a pledge to defend the best interests of our families and communities. During this year's budget negotiations she made good on those promises:

- Legislation to bring ride-sharing services to New York State
- Considerable Workers' Compensation reforms to benefit employers and employees
- $25.2 billion in total school aid to support our children's education
- $55 million to ensure direct-care workers are compensated fairly for their hard work
- Supports the $30 million in new funding to combat the heroin and opioid epidemic
- $2.5 billion to improve the health and safety of our water infrastructure
