2015 Farmers' Market Guide

Inspiring the Next Generation of Farmers

Ken Blankenbush works closely with our local family farmers and together they're inspiring and investing in the next generation of farmers here in Upstate New York. Keeping upstate's farm industry vibrant is good for all of us.

KEN INVESTS IN AGRICULTURAL INNOVATION

Ken secured $31 million in funding for agricultural programs, $4 million more than last year, helping all farmers.

- Increased funding for agricultural education opportunities to inspire next generation of farmers.
- Boosted funding in programs to help increase farming profits and improved access to the Beginning Farmers NY Fund.
- Created more opportunities to access new markets and invested in state agribusiness marketing.
- Saved these region-specific and specialty farming programs from the governor's cuts:

Northern New York Agricultural Development
North Country Low Cost Rabies Vaccine
Maple Producers
Wood Products Council
Corn and Soybean Growers Association

New York Farm Viability Institute
Numerous dairy programs
Wine and Grape Foundation
Christmas Tree Farmers Association
