

Assemblyman Al Stirpe

→ Working to create opportunities in Central New York

“I am continuing my efforts toward building a brighter future for Central New York families.”

–Assemblyman Al Stirpe

Assemblyman Al Stirpe:

“Strengthening Central New York starts with rebuilding the middle class.”

Delivering much-needed tax relief

- Cut property taxes by $1.5 billion over the next 3 years
- Cut an energy tax on residents, saving $600 million over 3 years
- $350 tax rebate checks for middle-class families with children

Launches Stirpe’s “Middle-Skills Initiative”

- Includes $600,000 in funding to close the “middle-skills gap”
- Provides job training and certification to equip workers with the skills they need for high-tech jobs

Al Stirpe

ASSEMBLY DISTRICT 127

Keeping Central New York competitive and creating jobs

- Lowering the income tax on manufacturers to ZERO
- Cut an energy tax on businesses
- Cut the business tax to its lowest rate since 1968
- Providing tax credits to employers who hire veterans

“Skills training is critical to putting people back to work and helping manufacturers stay competitive. We congratulate Assemblyman Stirpe for securing the resources to create new training opportunities for our region’s residents.”

– Robert Simpson, president of the CenterState Corporation for Economic Opportunity