The legalization of ride-sharing for western New York, $25.2 billion in school funding, fair pay for direct-care workers, and funding for apprenticeship programs across the state are all major victories for the residents of the 145th Assembly District.

Other Budget Accomplishments:

- This year's budget will provide $2.5 billion for clean water infrastructure projects and an additional $75 million for New York residents to install, replace, or upgrade septic systems.
- CHIPS funding will total $438.1 million plus an additional $65 million for extreme winter recovery and $100 million for the paving of New York's roads.
- The state budget also sets aside $95.6 million in aid for libraries across the state.
- Secured $200 million to fight New York's heroin and opioid epidemic, a $30 million increase from last year's budget
