Assemblyman Brian Curran Supports IVF in New York

PROTECTING WOMEN'S HEALTH CARE

In response to the attack on In Vitro Fertilization in Alabama, Assemblyman Brian Curran has introduced a proposal that would protect IVF in New York<sup>6</sup> by prohibiting a fertilized human egg outside of the body from being considered a human being. In 2018, Assemblyman Curran co-sponsored a proposal that made insurance providers cover IVF in New York.<sup>5</sup>

WHY IVF SHOULD BE PROTECTED.....

Often used to help couples with fertility issues have the family of their dreams.

42% of adults know someone who has used IVF as a way to have a child <sup>1</sup>

Between 2017 and 2019, 10% of women between the ages of 15 and 44 received fertility treatment <sup>2</sup>

In that same period, IVF resulted in 90,000 births <sup>3</sup>

44.5% IVF success rate for women under 35 <sup>4</sup>
