

Assemblywoman Aileen Gunther

(Left) It is so important to have great partnerships between state and federal representatives, which is why I met with our new Congressman, Sean Patrick Maloney, to discuss ways that we can work together to serve you.

I'd like to introduce myself

(Right) Earlier this month, I was happy to join Touro College as they announced their plans to purchase the Horton Hospital Campus in the City of Middletown and build a college of osteopathic medicine. I am proud to have worked with them to secure $1 million from the Governor's Regional Economic Development Council to make this a reality.

Dear Friend,

I'd like to introduce myself as your new state Assemblymember. I'm very grateful for the opportunity to represent you in Albany.

As the representative of the newly formed 100th Assembly District, I look forward to hearing from you on important issues facing our state and community, so I can fight for what matters most to you.

During my tenure in office, I have fought to resolve issues that negatively impact the lives of the people I represent. If it is important to you, it's important to me. Housing, insurance, health care, education, and issues affecting seniors and veterans are all areas where I can be helpful.

If I can be of any assistance to you, feel free to stop by my new office in Middletown City Hall, located at 16 James Street on the third floor. The office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Below is my contact information. If you have any questions or comments, please don't hesitate to reach out to me.

Sincerely,

Aileen Gunther

P.S. Please let me know about any meetings, functions or community events in our area. It would be my pleasure to join you!
