Assemblyman Billy Jones is putting North Country families first

To help our communities navigate these challenging times, Jones:

- Allocated $40 million in emergency funding to purchase necessary equipment and supplies and hire and train more health care workers
- Passed legislation to allow industrial development agencies (IDAs) to provide up to $25,000 loans to small businesses and not-for-profit organizations (Chapter 109)
- Helped distribute 70,000 boxes of food and 21,900 gallons of milk to assist local families in need while also supporting North Country farmers
- Extended price gouging regulations during an abnormal disruption in the market to include medical supplies and services, as well as other essential goods and services for the health and safety of the public (Chapter 90)

Jones helped 631 North Country residents cut through bureaucratic red tape, in addition to helping distribute hand sanitizer and PPE to local businesses in the district.
