- c. Prior to the commencement of debate on a bill to which an amendment is offered by a member other than the introducer, the Clerk of the Assembly shall make copies thereof and cause one copy to be placed on the desk of each member of the House. When there is more than one amendment to a bill and one of such amendments is adopted, any of the other amendments so offered shall, if so requested by the member offering same, be debated and voted upon immediately after such adoption, provided, however, that such other amendments are offered to those provisions of the bill not changed by the adopted amendment and are consistent with the provisions of the adopted amendment.
- d. If a motion to amend prevails, the Clerk of the Assembly shall distribute copies of the bill with the amendment correctly marked thereon together with copies of the detailed description of the amendment to the appropriate Assembly offices for purposes of renumbering and printing the bill as amended.

One-half hour shall be allowed for such debate, but no person shall speak more than fifteen minutes, except by consent of the House. The main question, however, if ordered, shall be on the advancement of the bill; but when amendments are pending the question shall first be taken upon such amendments in their inverse order.
- c. All bills on the order of second reading shall be ordered to third reading unless otherwise ordered pursuant to subdivision b of this section or pursuant to paragraph one of subdivision b of section ten of Rule IV.

- e. In all cases where unanimous consent is asked for advancing a bill or entertaining a motion or resolution out of its order, it shall be the duty of the Speaker to proclaim such request and determine if such consent will be granted.
- f. A bill appearing on the Calendar may be “starred” by or at the request of the introducer, whereupon all further action on such bill shall be suspended, although it retains its place on the Calendar. Other than for the purpose of amendment or recommittal, a star may not be removed from a bill until one day after the request therefor. A bill on any order of third reading which has been laid aside by or at the request of the introducer on three separate days shall be automatically starred.
- g. Substitution of Bills. Where there is a Senate bill in a standing committee and the identical Assembly bill is on the order of second or any order of third reading, the Senate bill may be substituted for the Assembly bill upon a motion by, or on behalf of, the introducer and a vote of a majority of the members present and voting. The motion to substitute may also be made on an identical Assembly bill which has been passed, recalled, vote reconsidered and restored to third reading.

§ 8. Revision and engrossing.

- a. The Office of Assembly Revision shall examine and correct all bills, for the purpose of avoiding repetitions, insuring accuracy in the text and references, and consistency with the language of the existing statutes. - b. All bills when ordered to a third reading except Senate bills which have not been amended in the House, or bills, which have been made a special order on second and third reading, shall be sent to the Index Clerk to be jacketed with the proper jurat for certification of final passage. Each such bill shall, after passage by both Houses, be engrossed, if so ordered by the Speaker, or stamped “Official Copy” in which case it shall be deemed to have been engrossed.

- g. All bills favorably reported shall, if the report be agreed to, be placed on the order of second reading, except that any bill providing for a state appropriation, or creating or increasing a charge (i) upon the state or (ii) upon a local government shall, when favorably reported by any committee other than the Committee on Ways and Means, be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. - c. In all cases of the absence of members during the session of the House, the members present may take such measures as they shall deem necessary to secure their presence, and in addition to suspending them from the service of the House for a given period, may inflict such censure or pecuniary penalty as they may deem just on those who, on being called on for that purpose, shall not render a sufficient excuse for their absence. For the purpose of securing the attendance of members, a call of the House may be made, but such call shall not be in order after voting on the question has commenced, unless the roll call has been withdrawn by the introducer. While a call of the House is in progress no other business shall be transacted except by order of the House.

A member may abstain from a vote only on the grounds that such vote will constitute a conflict of interest.
- b. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision c of this section, the yeas and nays shall be taken individually of each member on the final passage of a bill and on any other question whenever required by any fifteen members (unless a division by yeas and nays be pending), and when so taken each member's affirmative or negative vote shall be entered through the electronic voting system or in such other manner as may be prescribed by the Speaker and entered on the Journal. - e. Copies of all roll calls, including all recorded procedural votes, shall be made available to the Majority and Minority Leaders and representatives of the news media within thirty minutes after completion thereof and, as soon as practicable thereafter, shall be made available for public inspection at a place designated by the Speaker, and made available on the Assembly Internet site and the Legislative Retrieval System.

If it is ascertained that a quorum is present, either by answering to their names, or by their presence in the House, the yeas and nays shall again be ordered by the Speaker, and if any member present refuses to vote, such refusal shall be deemed a contempt, and unless purged, the House may order the Sergeant-at-Arms to remove said member or members without the bar of the House, and all privileges of membership shall be refused the person or persons so offending until the contempt be duly purged.
- g. A member who was absent at the time a prior vote was taken upon any matter may, within thirty days following the date of his or her first recorded vote subsequent to such prior vote, file a statement of how such member would have voted had he or she been present at the time of such prior vote. Such statement shall be in writing and filed with the Clerk of the Assembly and the contents thereof shall be duly noted on the roll call by such Clerk.

§ 3. Name on Journal. Except for the advancement of a Senate bill which has been substituted for an Assembly bill, where a bill, order, motion or resolution shall be entered on the Journal, the name of the member introducing or moving the same shall also be entered on the Journal.

§ 4. Communications respecting bills. All written communications from public officers and agencies of the State or local governments furnished to a committee, respecting a bill which has been referred to such committee, for consideration, shall be available to the introducer of the bill for examination. In lieu of such examination, the chairperson of the committee may elect to furnish the introducer with copies of such communications.

§ 5. Making a Statement. Immediately after the completion of the orders of the day, and with the unanimous consent of the House, a member may make a statement, not exceeding fifteen minutes in length, concerning a subject or matter not pending before the House for consideration.

§ 6. Consideration of bills and resolutions.

- a. No member rising to debate, to give notice, make a motion or report, or to present a petition or other paper, shall proceed until such member shall have addressed the Speaker from his or her place and has been recognized by the Speaker. While a member is speaking, no member shall entertain any private discourse or pass between the member speaking and the Chair.
- b. Unless otherwise provided by these Rules, no member shall speak, except in his or her place, nor more than once without leave of the House and no member shall speak for more than the time prescribed herein except by consent of two-thirds of the members present.
 1. No member shall speak on any bill or amendment for more than fifteen minutes, provided, however, the floor leader of each conference or a designee thereof may be granted a second, additional fifteen minutes to speak on any bill or amendment.
 2. No member shall speak for more than two minutes in any explanation of vote upon the final passage of a bill.
 3. In addition to the foregoing, the sponsor of, or member designated to debate, any bill may make a statement not to exceed five minutes for the purpose of opening debate on such bill.
 4. Consideration of any bill, and any proposed amendment thereto, shall not exceed five hours; with up to four hours allocated for debate and up to one hour allocated for explanations of votes. The times allocated herein shall be divided evenly between each conference, provided, however, such division shall not apply to consideration of bills submitted by the Governor under Article VII of the Constitution, including the Assembly's response thereto, concurrent resolutions proposing amendments to the Constitution of the State, or as otherwise agreed to by the Speaker and Minority Leader.
 5. No member shall speak for more than five minutes on any resolution without leave of the House. Consideration of any resolution shall be limited to thirty minutes.
 6. Members may be granted permission to submit a written statement as a substitution for or to extend upon their remarks on the floor for the record; such remarks must comply in all respects with the rules and customs and practices of the House relating to debate to be included in the record.
- c. If any member, in speaking, fails to maintain decorum, deviates from the subject matter of the question before the House, or otherwise transgresses the Rules of the House, the Speaker may call such member to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, and shall not rise unless to explain or proceed in order.
- d. While the Speaker is putting a question, or a roll call is in progress or a count is being had, no member shall speak or leave his or her place. When the House shall be equally divided on any question, including the Speaker's vote, the question shall be deemed to be lost. All questions relating to the priority of one question or subject matter over another, under the same order of business, shall be decided without debate. If any question contains several distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the Chair at the request of any member, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible. All questions of order, as they shall occur, with the decisions thereon, shall be entered in the Journal, and, at the close of the session, a statement of all such questions and decisions shall be printed at the close of and as an appendix to the Journal.

§ 7. Adjournment.

- a. When a motion to adjourn is carried, the members and officers shall keep their seats and places until the Speaker declares the House adjourned.
- b. No motion to adjourn sine die shall be in order until all bills transmitted to the Governor shall have been acted upon by him or her, and in the case of vetoed bills, until such bills have been returned to each House for at least three legislative calendar days.

§ 8. Contest of election. A contest of the election of any member shall be referred to the Judiciary Committee for investigation and report.

§ 9. Staff, materials and other perquisites. Each member of the House shall be entitled to an equal allocation of printed newsletters and other printed materials and postage therefor, and stationery and other similar perquisites, and each member shall receive an equal allowance for staff personnel, except that the allocation of stationery and other similar perquisites and the allowance for staff personnel may be greater for members in majority and minority leadership positions, committee, subcommittee and task force chairpersons and ranking minority members of committees, subcommittees and task forces. Such greater allotment or staff shall be commensurate with the additional duties assigned to such member.

§ 10. Use of legislative printing, mail and mass communication facilities.

- a. The use of legislative printing and mail facilities for newsletters and other forms of mass mailings which bear the name or likeness of a candidate in a local, special, primary or general election shall be prohibited within thirty days of such local, special, or primary election and be prohibited within sixty days of such general election. Members may not utilize other forms of Assembly-funded mass communication media during such thirty day and sixty day periods, respectively.
- b. The Assembly shall maintain a file containing a copy of each newsletter provided by Assembly facilities which file shall be available to the public.
- c. The provisions of this section shall be applicable to all communications addressed to the geographic area in which the member is running for election.

§ 11. Employee candidates for Senator or member of Assembly. No Assembly employee shall remain on the Assembly payroll while a candidate for Senator or member of Assembly. For the purposes herein, an employee shall be deemed a candidate for Senator or member of the Assembly upon the filing of designating petitions for such office or, where nominations for such office are made other than by petition, upon nomination. Such employee shall remain off the Assembly payroll until such time as his or her candidacy shall cease or upon the day following election day for such office, whichever comes first.

PERMANENT JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

JOINT RULE I

Section 1. Requirement of Fiscal Impact Notes. Fiscal impact notes shall be required for all bills and amendments, other than those excepted as provided in section four hereof, which would substantially affect the revenues or expenses, or both, of any county, city, town, village, school district or special district (hereinafter referred to as "political subdivisions"). For purposes of this Joint Rule and section 51 of the Legislative Law, the term "special district" shall mean a district possessing the power to contract indebtedness and levy or require the levy of taxes or benefit assessments upon real property.

§ 2. Sufficiency and Contents of Fiscal Impact Notes. Fiscal impact notes shall be deemed sufficient for purposes of this Joint Rule if prepared in conformity with this section.

- A. Scope of fiscal estimates. Fiscal impact upon political subdivisions shall be estimated on the basis of any one or more of the following:
 - (i) Individual political subdivisions; or
 - (ii) Aggregates of political subdivisions (a) statewide or by lesser geographic area, or (b) by classification or subclassification of relevant characteristics; or
 - (iii) Representative political subdivisions with relevant characteristics thereof quantitatively set forth, e.g., population, area, weighted average daily attendance of pupils; or
 - (iv) Any other appropriate, convenient or accessible grouping of political subdivisions.
- B. Units of measurement. Fiscal impact measurements shall be made in units of money, personal services, equipment, or any other appropriate, convenient or accessible units of measurement.
- C. Negligible Impact. A fiscal impact note filed by the sponsor of a bill which states that the fiscal impact of the bill is negligible shall be deemed to be in compliance with this Joint Rule.

§ 3. Procedure.

- A.
 - (i) The Temporary President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each designate a person in such officer's respective house to examine each bill in such house, without regard to its house of origin, for the purpose of ascertaining whether a fiscal impact note is required pursuant to this Joint Rule, and if such note is required, such person shall so notify the sponsor of such bill.
 - (ii) The sponsor of such bill shall provide such fiscal impact note on a separate form prescribed therefor by the Temporary President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly jointly.
 - (iii) Such fiscal impact note shall state the source thereof, which may be the sponsor; provided, however, that in the case of a bill proposed by a state department or agency, such note shall be prepared and furnished by such department or agency.
 - (iv) Such designated person in each house shall thereupon review each fiscal impact note for compliance with the provisions of this Joint Rule.
- B. No bill requiring a fiscal impact note shall be reported to the floor of the house unless accompanied by the appropriate note for the version of such bill so reported, except as provided in section four hereof.
- C. If an amendment to a bill has a fiscal impact, the member offering such amendment shall provide the fiscal impact note required by such amendment. If such amendment prevails, the sponsor shall provide a fiscal impact note for the amended bill before final passage, unless excepted pursuant to subdivision F of section four hereof.

§ 4. Exceptions. A fiscal impact note shall not be required for a bill:

- A. subject to the provisions of section 50 of the Legislative Law;
- B. requested by a county, city, town or village in accordance with the provisions of paragraph two of subdivision (b) of section two of Article IX of the Constitution;
- C. which provides discretionary authority to a political subdivision;
- D. submitted pursuant to section 24 of the State Finance Law;
- E. reported to the floor of the House by the Rules Committee, if such committee, in its discretion, determines that such action is in the public interest;

- F. which has been amended on the floor of either house, where a fiscal impact note would otherwise have been required for such amended bill by this Joint Rule and section 51 of the Legislative Law, if the Temporary President of the Senate or the Speaker of the Assembly, respectively, in such officer's discretion, determines that the amended bill may be acted on in such officer's house without such note; or
- G. which inadvertently passes the Legislature where a fiscal impact note would otherwise have been required by this Joint Rule and section 51 of the Legislative Law.

§ 5. Effect of Inaccuracy. If the estimate or estimates contained in a fiscal impact note are inaccurate, such inaccuracy shall not affect, impair or invalidate such bill.

§ 6. Application. The provisions of this Joint Rule shall apply to bills and amendments proposed for introduction at the nineteen hundred eighty-five regular legislative session and permanently thereafter.

JOINT RULE II

Section 1. Committee on Conference. The Temporary President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly may jointly convene a Joint Committee on Conference to consider and report upon substantially similar but not identical legislation that has passed each House of the Legislature. Such committee shall be constituted by the filing of a joint certificate by the Temporary President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly with the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the Assembly, and shall consist of the same number of members from each House. Unless otherwise provided in the certificate, there shall be five members on such committee from each House to be appointed by the Temporary President of the Senate who shall appoint the members from the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly who shall appoint the members from the Assembly; provided, however, that of each House's delegation at least one member shall represent the minority in each House. The Temporary President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a co-chairperson of the committee and such co-chairpersons shall convene and recess meetings of the committee. Meetings jointly convened by the co-chairpersons shall be subject to the provisions of Article 7 of the Public Officers Law. The committee shall file a written report setting forth the joint recommendations of a majority of each House's delegation with the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the Assembly or such other committees or officers as may be set forth in the certificate and such report may include specific bill language that would implement the joint committee's recommendations. No report shall be filed except upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of each House's delegation on the committee.

JOINT RULE III

Section 1. Budget Consideration Schedule. In accordance with section 54-a of the Legislative Law, within ten days of the submission of the budget by the Governor pursuant to article VII of the Constitution, the Temporary President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly shall promulgate a schedule of dates for considering and acting upon such submission. Such schedule shall include the dates for those actions required to be taken by the legislature pursuant to section 53 of the Legislative Law, dates for the convening of a joint budget conference committee or committees as provided herein, and a date by which such committee or committees shall issue a final report or reports.

§ 2. Joint Budget Conference Committee. In accordance with section 54-a of the Legislative Law, within ten days of the submission of the budget by the Governor pursuant to article VII of the Constitution, the Temporary President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly shall jointly establish a Joint Budget Conference Committee and, as they deem necessary, any number of subcommittees subordinate to such Joint Budget Conference Committee, to consider and reconcile such budget resolutions or bills passed by, or as may be passed by, the Senate and Assembly. Such Joint Budget Conference Committee shall be constituted and conducted as prescribed in Joint Rule II and shall file its written report in accord with the schedule established pursuant to section 1 of this rule.

JOINT RULE IV

Section 1. Joint Advisory Board on Broadcast of State Government Proceedings. The Temporary President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly shall convene a bi-partisan, bi-cameral joint advisory board to oversee current and future broadcast of New York State Government proceedings. This board shall consist of eight members of whom three shall be appointed by the Temporary President of the Senate, three members shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and one member shall be appointed by each of the minority leaders of each house. The appointments shall be of members of the respective houses of the Legislature. The Temporary President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a co-chair of the board.

§ 2. Duties of the Joint Advisory Board. The joint advisory board shall engage in such activities as it deems necessary for the preparation and formulation of a report to review the efficacy of current programming and explore future expansion of such to include additional legislative and other governmental proceedings, as well as other related public policy and educational material. The report shall include specific recommendations concerning the broadcast or webcast on the Internet of all legislative committee meetings. On or before November 1, 2009, the report shall be submitted to the Temporary President of the Senate, the Speaker of the Assembly, the Minority Leader of the Senate and the Minority Leader of the Assembly.

JOINT RULE V

Section 1. Advisory Opinions in relation to Outside Employment. A member of the legislature who intends to undertake or who undertakes outside employment shall submit to the Legislative Ethics Commission a written request for a formal advisory opinion, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph i of subdivision 7 of section 80 of the Legislative Law, regarding whether the outside employment is consistent with the provisions of sections 73 and 74 of the Public Officers Law. For the purposes of this joint rule, “outside employment” means compensation in excess of 5,000 dollars per calendar year, other than compensation provided pursuant to sections 5 and 5-a of the Legislative Law, from employment for services rendered or goods sold as part of a regular course of any business during a member’s term.

§ 2. Timeframe. Members of the legislature shall be required to submit such written requests as follows:
