As a father and grandfather, Joe DeStefano's goal is to leave our community a safer place than he found it for future generations.

Joe knows that we deserve peace of mind when our kids go for a bike ride or play soccer at the local park; he has taken our concerns to Albany and champions the strongest public safety package in existence:

- Reinstates the death penalty for cop-killing gang members (A.6114).
- Stops sex offenders from driving for ride-sharing services (A.6103).
- Monitors transient sex offenders (A.6117).
- Hires more retired police officers as School Resource Officers (A.3732).
- Makes child ID information readily available to police. For more information, call the Suffolk County Sheriff's Department at (631) 852-2663.
