Meet Our New Assemblyman, ED FLOOD!

As a lifelong resident of Port Jefferson, Ed is eager to give back to his community as our new Assemblyman by fighting to restore public safety and fiscal sanity in Albany.

- ★ As a father of five children, he understands how important quality education is for our youth and will demand curriculum transparency to help advocate with parents in the public education system
- ★ Vote to reduce taxes and keep money in the pockets of hard-working residents
- ★ Get state spending under control to reduce the number of New Yorkers leaving our state
- ★ Combat the rise in crime by putting an end to bail reform, supporting law enforcement, and giving the power back to judges to keep violent criminals off the streets
