Dear Neighbors,

Thank you for allowing me to represent your voices in Albany. I will continue to fight for common-sense solutions and deliver results for our communities.

Please feel free to contact my district office with your concerns or for information about any of our programs or events by calling 516-541-4598 or emailing me at dursom@nyassembly.gov.

ASSEMBLYMAN MICHAEL DURSO

Island Harvest: Assemblyman Durso joined Island Harvest Food Bank, the National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC), and the United States Postal Service in support of the annual Stamp Out Hunger food drive, the nation's largest single-day food collection campaign.

School Supply Drive: Assemblyman Durso teamed up with local officials to collect back-to-school supplies at Marjorie Post Community Park to benefit disadvantaged students. All items collected were donated to Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Massapequa Park to benefit local families in need.

BOCES Annual Signing Day: Assemblyman Durso attended Nassau BOCES GC Tech's first annual Career Signing Day at the Levittown Memorial Education Center. The event celebrated GC Tech students who will be entering the workforce full time in their chosen career or trade, or joining the military.

Islip Goes Purple: Assemblyman Durso joined community members, volunteers, elected officials, and law enforcement at the Town of Islip's Islip Goes Purple Kick Off. The annual event raises awareness of mental health and substance use disorders and celebrates those in recovery.

Honoring our Veterans: Assemblyman Durso, in coordination with the Massapequa American Legion Post 1066, recently held his 3rd Annual Veterans' Appreciation Pancake Breakfast and Resource Fair honoring our nation's heroes for their service and sacrifice.

Direct Support Professional of the Year: Assemblyman Durso honored North Babylon resident Yolanda Trent for being recognized as OPWDD's "Direct Support Professional of the Year" at a celebratory event in Albany.

Shed the Meds and Narcan Training Event: Assemblyman Durso, in partnership with the Suffolk County Sheriff's Office, local elected officials, West Babylon Fire Department, and Northwell Health, held a free Shed the Meds and Narcan Training Event at the West Babylon Fire Department.

Eagle Scout Recognition: Assemblyman Durso was proud to attend the Eagle Scout Court of Honor for Marcus Caniano, Boy Scout Troop 690, upon his achievement of the rank of Eagle Scout. This distinguished honor is a testament to his hard work, dedication, and character.
