IN THE NEWS:

ANTISEMITISM IS ON THE RISE— WE'RE FIGHTING BACK

NEW YORK IS A BEACON OF DIVERSITY, BUT HATE THREATENS OUR UNITY.

Assemblyman Daniel Norber is taking bold steps to promote inclusion and protect our communities.

New York has seen an alarming surge in antisemitic incidents. That's why Assemblyman Daniel Norber is taking action with real legislation to protect our communities:

The Dismantling Student Antisemitism (DSA) Act requires colleges to provide antisemitism awareness training and report incidents of antisemitic hate and discrimination.¹

The Antisemitism Vandalism Act makes it illegal to knowingly damage, destroy or remove pro-Israel signs and banners in public spaces.²

The Combating Campus Antisemitism Act ensures tuition assistance awards are not provided to any student who has knowingly incited lawless action with antisemitic intent.³

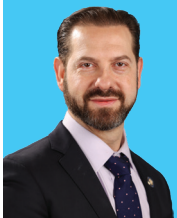

The Stop Anti-Semitism on College Campuses Act prevents any college that facilitates support for events promoting antisemitism on campus from receiving state aid.⁴

DID YOU KNOW?

- In New York City, antisemitic hate crimes surged by 74% in 2024.⁵
- New York State saw over one-third of the nation's antisemitic assaults in 2023⁶, with 94%⁶ of these incidents occurring in New York City or its surrounding suburbs, according to the Anti-Defamation League (ADL).
- ADL noted a 321% increase in antisemitic incidents on U.S. college campuses in the 2023-2024 academic year compared to the prior year, with New York universities like Columbia being a focal point.⁷

Assemblyman Norber's work is part of a broader mission to combat all forms of hate, ensuring every New Yorker feels safe and valued. Join us in building a stronger, more inclusive Long Island.
