Assemblyman ARI BROWN

A 30 year resident of Cedarhurst and longtime public servant, Ari Brown was elected to the New York State Assembly in a special election on April 7, 2022.

“It is one of the highest honors of my life to represent you in the State Assembly. I believe New York is on the wrong path and I pledge to be a strong voice against high taxes, rising crime, and oppressive mandates. From Inwood to Point Lookout, our community is filled with generous, hardworking people and I will always take your concerns with me to Albany to fight for a more safe, healthy, and vibrant New York.”

- Ari Brown

ARI'S PRIORITIES:

- ✓ Repeal cashless bail and protect public safety
- ✓ Curb high taxes and regulations
- ✓ Support our police and first responders
- ✓ Protect parental choice in schools
- ✓ Combat hate crimes and anti-Semitism
- ✓ Repeal congestion pricing
- ✓ Protect individuals with disabilities
