Cornell Cancels Classes after Student Arrested for Antisemitic Threats of Murder, Rape

- National Review

There is no place in our great nation for the intolerant and misguided views¹ coming from many of our universities and certain reckless elected officials that promote this hatred. We must demand better of our public servants and places of higher learning, and we must stand up for decency and justice, saying, 'never again' to blatant Jew hatred.

ARI'S COMMITMENT TO STOPPING HATE:

CONDEMNING ANTISEMITISM

- » Standing in staunch opposition to "Not on our dime," which would prohibit not-for-profit corporations from aiding "Israeli settlements" (A.6943)
- » Include antisemitism as a violation of state human rights law (A.1862)

PROTECTION AGAINST HATE CRIMES

- » Protect victims of hate crimes from having their insurance policy canceled by insurers (A.2207)
- » Enforce colleges to condemn hate crimes on campus (A.3694-A)
- » Introduce the "Stop Anti-Semitism on College Campuses Act," which will halt state aid to any college or university that facilitates, funds, or supports any event promoting anti-Semitism on campus (A.8284)

STANDING WITH OUR JEWISH COMMUNITIES

- » Prohibit New York from participating in international boycotts against Israel (A.7751)
- » Adopt a resolution to never forget those who perished during the Holocaust (K.58)
- » Recognize Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur as religious holidays at SUNY and CUNY schools (A.3952)

"My message is clear: We will not tolerate threats, antisemitism or any kind of hatred in New York State."²
