Assemblyman Ari Brown donated his kidney. Here's how it went

Prior to this year's legislative session, Assemblyman Ari Brown took time to help a man in need, donating one of his kidneys to a Purple Heart-awarded veteran.

Ari's Commitment in Albany:

Established the "New York State Living Donor Support Program"
(Chapter 814 of 2022)

Expanded eligibility for individuals under the New York State Living Donor Support Program (Chapter 66 of 2023)

The Red Cross has declared an emergency blood shortage¹. Every blood donation has the potential to save up to three lives. Donating blood is safe, easy and takes little time. Consider donating today!

Become a blood donor with the American Red Cross of Long Island at 1-516-747-3500 or scan here.

Register as a New York State Organ Donor through the enrollment form found by scanning here.
