Children's Summer Reading Story Hour: Libraries Rock

Wednesday, July 25th
11:00 a.m.

Elmont Memorial Library
700 Hempstead Turnpike
Elmont, NY 11003-2366

Children from ages 0 to 18 are invited to celebrate summer reading and our local library system. During this free program, kids will have the opportunity to read and interact with musical instruments.

We also invite all students to participate in the Assembly's annual Summer Reading Challenge. Young readers who read at least 15 minutes per day for 40 days in July and August, as well submit a reading challenge form will receive an official Assembly certificate and be invited to the annual 'Readers are Leaders' Party. Forms are available online: <http://assembly.state.ny.us/mem/Michaelle-C-Solages> or at our District Office: 1690 Central Court Valley Stream, NY 11580.

Citizen Preparedness Training (RSVP Required)

Saturday, August 11th
11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Valley Stream, NY 11580

With severe weather events becoming more frequent and more extreme, it is more important than ever that New Yorkers are prepared for disasters. Assemblywoman Michaelle C. Solages will host a workshop lead by the New York State Citizen Preparedness Corps. Residents will obtain information and resources on how to prepare for any type of disaster, respond accordingly, and recover as quickly as possible in post disaster conditions.

A key component of this training is the distribution of New York State Citizen Preparedness Corps Response Kits that contain key items to assist individuals in the immediate aftermath of a disaster. Every registered family unit will receive one free backpack with supplies.

All attendees must register to participate. One kit per family. Please RSVP by calling the District Office at 516-599-2972 or email: solagesm@nyassembly.gov.
