Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) Launch Queens Bus Network Redesign Phase 1

Please be advised that there are tons of changes within South East Queens. The MTA has launched the Queens Bus Network Redesign Phase 1. The redesigned network introduces 124 bus routes—94 local and 30 express—representing an increase of 11 new routes. This initiative is backed by a $33.7 million annual investment in operations, aimed at enhancing service and connectivity for riders. Phase 1 officially launched on June 29, 2025, with Phase 2 scheduled to roll out on Sunday, August 31, 2025 targeting the Rockaways. This is a significant step forward for our community especially for Southeast Queens, which offers faster commute times and access to transit connections.

I hope this is a success for the community at large!

Airport Concession Disadvantaged Business Enterprise Fund

Division of Small Business
& Technology Development

Empire State Development (ESD) utilizing the State Small Business Credit Initiative (SSBCI) has partnered with the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey to create the $50 million Airport Concession Disadvantaged Business Enterprise Fund (ACDBE Fund) providing support to certified-ACDBE businesses seeking concession opportunities at the John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK) and the LaGuardia Airport (LGA).

How does the ACDBE Fund work?

- The fund provides $50 million in loan capital to Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFIs) and credit enhancements to banks to support certified ACDBEs already awarded or currently seeking airport concession opportunities at JFL or LGA. Program lenders use this capital along with matching capital from other resources to offer small business loans.
- Loans range from $500,000 up to $5,000,000.
- Competitive interest rates, terms and fees are determined by the individual program lenders. Lenders are responsible for applications and credit decisions.

What can the loan funds be used for?

- Typical uses of funds are working capital, acquisition of machinery and equipment and leasehold improvements at a NYC Airport business location.

How to apply?

- Confirm your ACDBE certification at <https://panynj.diversitysoftware.com/>
- ACDBEs will need to provide proof of certification, a business plan, their financial need, and the contract or concession opportunity they are pursuing.
- Contact one of the following participating lenders for application details:
 - ❖ Greater Jamaica Development Corp. (www.gjdc.org)
 - ❖ Lendistry (www.lendistry.com)
 - ❖ TruFund Financial Services (www.trufund.org)
 - ❖ Upper Manhattan Empowerment Zone (UMEZ) (www.umez.org)

JFK Redevelopment: Community Advisory Council & Diversity in Contracting

The Port Authority has committed to robust community outreach and strong participation by local and diverse businesses.

As part of its community outreach strategy, the Port Authority formed the JFKR Community Advisory Council, composed of local elected officials, community boards, business and academic institutions, civic and nonprofit organizations, and faith leaders.

ROSEDALE Quality of Life Concerns Frequently Asked Questions by Homeowners/Residents

Loud Music - Backyard Parties

Q: My neighbor plays loud music at their backyard parties all the time. Is this a violation of the NYC noise code? Should I talk to my neighbor about the noise?

A: YES. NYC noise codes and regulations prohibit excessive and unreasonable levels of noise that disturbs the peace. Be mindful that if done politely and respectfully, having a conversation with your neighbor may eliminate the noise problem.

Q: What if talking does not accomplish anything. Who should I call to report a noise complaint?

A: All non-emergency noise complaints should be made to 311; they will direct your complaint to the New York City Police Department (NYPD). The NYPD takes service requests to those noise complaints when they are not handling emergencies. The officers will be able to take action if the noise is still happening when they arrive

Q: How late can music be played outside?

A: To avoid disturbing your neighbors, use common courtesy and lower or end the music by 10 pm.

Abandoned/Derelict Vehicles

Q: There is an abandoned car parked on the street that has not been moved for days. What can I do?

A: You can call 311 and report an abandoned vehicle. Unless a posted sign says otherwise, you may not park a car over (7) days in a row in the same spot. Before involving the police, first check with your neighbors to ascertain the vehicle's owner. Officers from the police precinct will respond and investigate, when they are not handling emergency situations. The department of sanitation will respond, investigate and tag the vehicle. Once it is tagged, it will be removed within (3) business days. The vehicle owner will be responsible for all towing and storage fees.

Dirty Sidewalks

Q: Who is responsible to clean the sidewalks and curbs on my street?

A: Homeowners must clean sidewalks adjoining to their property. Homeowners are responsible to clean (18) inches from the curb into the street. Litter and debris must be picked up and deposited in suitable containers with lids for garbage collection. Recycling should be separated from regular garbage. Electronics should be deposited at retail drop off sites and not with regular garbage.

Queens District Attorney Melinda Katz

FIGHTING FOR YOU AGAINST ILLEGAL CANNABIS SHOPS AND SALES

Since November 2022, joint enforcement operations have resulted in the prosecution of over 440 individuals for felony-level charges related to the sale and/or possession of cannabis or controlled substances in Queens County. In that same time, the following items below have been seized from over 400 suspected illegal cannabis dispensaries in Queens County, with an estimated value of more than $25 million. The DA's office will also initiate eviction proceedings to permanently close illegal cannabis shops.

EVIDENCE RECOVERED

- Over 7,000 lbs. of cannabis edibles, including gummies and candy bars
- Over 12,000 lbs. of cannabis flower
- Over 18,000 cannabis vape "pens"
- Hundreds of packages of edible psilocybin, also known as "magic mushrooms"
- Also recovered from these locations: loaded firearms, tasers, stun guns and knives

WHAT TO DO IF YOU BELIEVE A BUSINESS IS AN ILLEGAL SMOKE SHOP

- Notify the NYPD and the Queens DA's office and we will take action.
- Know that, even after an investigation, a court-authorized search, removal of contraband and/or an arrest has been made – this does not immediately close the store.
- This is the first step in the legal process to allow us to initiate the eviction proceeding.
- Please know that DA Katz is committed to closing down as many illegal cannabis dispensaries as possible.

WELCOME CHANGES TO DISCOVERY

It was my honor to join Governor Kathy Hochul as she announced an agreement with State Legislative leaders to make essential changes to existing discovery laws.

The 2019 changes to discovery – the requirement that prosecutors share evidence with defense attorneys in a timely manner – were the right thing to do, but there have been unintended consequences: cases are taking longer, dismissals have increased, and victims are being harmed.

Working with my fellow district attorneys, we presented our state leaders with a trove of data that showed that our discovery laws needed to be updated.

These negotiated changes to the discovery statute will help preserve the rights of the accused, improve public safety and protect victims.

I thank Governor Hochul, Assembly Speaker Carle Heastie and Senate Majority Leader Andrea Stewart-Cousins for finding common ground on New York's discovery laws.

Our state has the most transparent discovery laws in the United States and these changes will safeguard that designation.

In Friendship,

AUTO THEFT CREW OPERATING IN TRI-STATE AREA BUSTED

A prolific car theft ring was dismantled, and 20 individuals were indicted on various charges including enterprise corruption, grand larceny and criminal possession of stolen property last month.

This crew allegedly stole more than $4.6 million worth of cars and motorcycles – including BMWs, Hondas, Mercedes-Benzes and Land Rovers – throughout the New York City area and beyond.

The arrests were the result of a three-year investigation by the DA's office, the NYPD and the New York State Police and included undercover operatives who were able to buy 44 of the 126 cars that had been stolen.

Many of the stolen vehicles were swiped from city streets, while others were taken from the driveways of car owners – sometimes unlocked with the keys or key fobs inside.

The theft crew also used high-tech methods to steal cars, including using a handheld device to access the car's diagnostics system, which enabled them to program new key fobs to drive the cars away.

After stealing the cars, the crew allegedly disabled vehicle navigation systems and were adept at disposing of any tracking devices that rightful owners placed in their vehicles.

The cars were then sold to brokers who allegedly advertised the stolen vehicles on social media, including Instagram and Facebook. The defendants quickly flipped cars without altering the vehicle identification numbers.

In addition to the cars, undercover investigators also bought three firearms from the alleged culprits, including a semi-automatic rifle.

DA Katz said that her office, along with law enforcement partners, will methodically investigate, prosecute and dismantle auto theft rings operating in Queens County.

HOW TO PROTECT YOUR VEHICLE

- 1. Get a Car Diagnostic Port Lock: This is a special lock that will block access to the diagnostic port that is used when you get your car serviced. Savvy criminals use this port to program new key fobs and drive away with your vehicle. A port lock will slow down and dissuade car thieves.
- 2. Use a traditional anti-theft device: Remember the steering wheel bars? They are still excellent deterrents. They're easily visible to would-be thieves and require a great deal of effort and time to disengage.
- 3. Lock your car: Remember to never leave your key or key fob in the car. Never leave the vehicle's engine running, even if you expect to be away for mere seconds.

WHAT IS DEED FRAUD?

Deed fraud occurs when someone files an unauthorized deed, mortgage or other lien against a property without the consent or knowledge of the homeowner. Anyone can be victimized, but seniors, immigrants and people of color are often targeted.

Summer Water Safety Tips

Follow these five tips to stay safe in the water this summer

Only swim when a lifeguard is on duty.

Caregivers and kids: Stay within arm's reach in or near the water.

Ask a lifeguard if water conditions are safe before entering the water.

In a rip current, stay calm and swim parallel to the shore to try to escape it.

Avoid alcohol and drugs when you're in, on, or around the water.

Protecting Yourself From SQUATTERS

Homeownership is part of the American dream, but unfortunately bad actors and fraudsters are continually inventing ways to defraud people out of their homes.

We at the Housing and Worker Protection Bureau are working hard to hold accountable those who would steal someone's home. However, the best protection is prevention so we would like to share with you some helpful information.

WHAT IS A SQUATTER?

A squatter is a person who enters and remains in your home without permission or authority to be there. A squatter will try to look and act like a person who has a right to be there, but they don't.

HOW IS A SQUATTER DIFFERENT FROM A TENANT?

A tenant is someone who at some point had permission to live in the home. They may be paying rent or have stopped paying rent. They may also have been allowed to stay in the home by another tenant with or without the landlord's permission.

A squatter never had permission to enter or stay in the home. Think of a squatter as burglar who never leaves.

IF YOU ARE THE VICTIM OF SQUATTERS (DO ALL THREE OF THESE):

- Call the police immediately.
- Retain an attorney experienced in landlord/tenant matters.
- Call the Queens District Attorney at (718) 286-6673.

SIMPLE STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO PROTECT YOURSELF FROM SQUATTERS:

- Confirm the title to your home—check the status of your deed with the NYC Department of Finance.
- Maintain your home and property so it doesn't look abandoned—mow the lawn, clean up trash etc.
- Make sure the neighbors know the status of the house and who is responsible for it.
- Keep the lights on using timers and motion sensors.
- Leave a car in the driveway or allow a neighbor to do so.
- Get a security camera or video doorbell.
- Regularly inspect the property and document the condition of the property with pictures and video.
- Put up no trespassing signs.
- If the owner of the house has died, have a family meeting about what to do with the property as soon as possible.

HOUSING JUSTICE

Housing is a human right. We advocate for both tenants and small landlords by spearheading the BASE campaign, creating the Bangladeshi Tenant Union, and helping first-time homebuyers with downpayment assistance. Additionally, our counselors are HUD certified, ensuring expert guidance in housing matters.

ECONOMIC JUSTICE

We instill financial confidence in the communities we serve through financial counseling and credit building as well as free tax preparation.

IMMIGRATION

We are immigrant strong so we organize to protect immigrant rights and provide services that support immigrant integration through language accessible and culturally competent immigration legal services.

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

We make voices heard on both the local and national level through voter registration, candidate forums, community board meetings, and countless other direct actions.

SMALL BUSINESS SERVICES

Work to promote, protect, and preserve immigrant-owned and immigrant-serving small businesses. Our Small Business Program connects local, immigrant-owned small businesses to much-needed assistance

ADVOCACY & ORGANIZING

Core to our strategy is organizing and advocating for systemic changes that remove the barriers to well-being, housing stability, and economic mobility for our communities through key policy changes.

Join your neighbors in southeast Queens in saving energy and money by making energy-efficient upgrades!

If your building or business is in southeast Queens and you have an active Con Edison electric account, you may be eligible for additional energy-efficiency incentives through the Neighborhood Program on top of the incentives from Con Edison core energy efficiency programs.

The Neighborhood Program incentives may cover up to 100% of your project cost!

The Neighborhood Program Has Higher Incentives For

- Multifamily Buildings: Common area LED lighting and controls, HVAC equipment, elevator upgrades, free installation of in-unit LEDs for tenants, and more.
- Small-Medium Business (SMB) Buildings: LED lighting and controls, refrigeration, HVAC equipment, and more. Houses of worship, non-profits, schools, and veteran organizations all may be eligible for additional program incentives.

There are also incentives available for heat pumps, hot water systems, energy management systems, and more through our core energy efficiency incentive programs.

By completing these upgrades, you may be able to lower energy and maintenance costs, and bring your space in compliance with local laws.

Memo: Avoiding Summer 2025 Traffic at JFK
Date: June 26, 2025

As we prepare for a record-breaking summer at JFK, we're asking for your help in sharing important travel tips with passengers.

Construction is at its peak as we build a brand-new, world-class JFK, with the first new gates opening next year. In the meantime, roadways are being rebuilt and driving to JFK this summer will be challenging. Travelers may face major congestion on the airport if they choose to arrive by car.

Plan Ahead with Construction.JFKAirport.com

We strongly recommend travelers visit Construction.JFKAirport.com before their trip. By entering their flight and transportation details, they'll receive a customized list of construction impacts tailored to their specific travel plans, including parking changes, pick-up areas, and terminal access updates.

Take the Train: Half-Price AirTrain JFK Fare

From June 30 through Labor Day, the fare from Jamaica and Howard Beach stations is reduced by 50% to $4.25. It's the fastest, most reliable way to reach the terminals and avoid traffic.

- Jamaica Station is just 20 minutes from Grand Central Madison, Penn Station, or Atlantic Terminal via LIRR
- Both stations are accessible via A/E/J/Z subway lines
- AirTrain accepts tap-and-go contactless fare payment methods and MetroCard at both the Jamaica and Howard Beach stations, the two off-airport stations that require payment.

If Driving or Being Dropped Off

- Avoid heavy congestion on terminal frontages and use the free wait lot at the AirTrain JFK's on-airport Lefferts Blvd station. It can be used by family, friends, and for-hire vehicles.
- If you must drive, pre-book parking at JFKAirport.com to guarantee a spot and save money. Without a reservation, you may not be able to find a spot.
- Travelers should arrive at least 3 hours before departure if driving.

As we continue the airport's $19 billion transformation during what's expected to be another record-setting summer travel season, we're asking travelers to leave the car at home and take public transit whenever possible.

Thanks for your patience. A new JFK is just around the corner!
