

ASSEMBLY MEMBER SEAWRIGHT:

Looking ahead to even more progress

“We accomplished so much in 2023, but our work is far from finished. With the 2024 legislative session right around the corner, I need your input as we continue moving our community forward.”

ASSEMBLY MEMBER REBECCA A. SEAWRIGHT:

Making the UES, Yorkville, and Roosevelt Island stronger:

- ✓ Delivered a free bus route in every borough, including the M116 in Manhattan
- ✓ Invested funding to increase subway service
- ✓ Rejected tuition hikes at SUNY and CUNY, so more New Yorkers have an opportunity to access higher education
- ✓ Provided historic levels of education funding, including fully funding Foundation Aid
- ✓ Expanded the Child Tax Credit to help families' budgets
- ✓ Supported workers by increasing the minimum wage and tying it to inflation
- ✓ Provided additional funding for affordable housing to help tenants and homeowners
- ✓ Secured funding to preserve, protect and promote an environmentally sustainable economy to invest in a clean future
- ✓ Delivered $110 million for programs to keep our families safe from gun violence
- ✓ Reformed New York's State Council on Developmental Disabilities

All funding from the 2023-24 Enacted NYS Budget*

LOOKING AHEAD

I want to hear from you.

What priorities do you think I should advocate for in the 2024 legislative session?
