

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

Labor Day weekend is a special time in our calendar. While many of us cherish this weekend as the unofficial last hurrah of the summer, it is also a time for us to reflect on the valuable contributions of organized labor to our city, state and nation. As we enjoy our barbecues and warm sunsets let us also rededicate ourselves to the values that make our society free and fair for all.

In honor of Women's Equality Day last Monday, we made a trip to the Theater District for a special performance by Broadway Supports Equal Rights. Performers organized a night of music to support Proposition 1 which would enshrine the Equal Rights Amendment into the New York State Constitution. In recognition of the hard work of Broadway Supports Equal Rights, we presented two proclamations on my behalf to Arianna Afsar and Lauren Molina for their outstanding work to further equality in the arts and in our society.

September is almost here and that means that students and parents all over the city are preparing to go back to school. A new school year means new possibilities for all students, educators and parents. Whether your first class is on the playground or on campus, education is one of the most valuable gifts we can give our children and ourselves. We bid farewell to summer and welcome autumn and the opportunities that come with the changing seasons.

As a reminder our office is closed on Monday, September 2nd in observance of a legal state government holiday and will reopen on Tuesday, September 3rd at 9:30 AM.

Please don't hesitate to reach out to our community office if we can be of assistance.

Sanitation and Construction Advisories

sanitation

The New York City Department of Sanitation announced that there would be no trash, curbside compost or recycling collection on Monday, September 2, Labor Day.

Residents who normally receive Monday trash, curbside compost or recycling collection should place their material at the curb Monday evening for collection starting Tuesday, September 3.

Please note that residents may experience collection delays as the Department works to pick up the backlog of material. We appreciate your patience.

For questions about Sanitation services and holiday schedules contact 311 or visit nyc.gov/sanitation.
