ASSEMBLYMEMBER

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

I was proud to host a Senior Services Forum at the Carter Burden Network with Acting State Aging Director Greg Olsen and community partners, connecting older New Yorkers with trusted information, fraud prevention tools, housing protections, and vital benefits. As Chair of the Assembly Aging Committee, I am committed to ensuring that seniors have access to the services and protections they deserve. My office is always here to help with questions about senior services, benefits, or housing.

As you may have heard, a major winter storm is expected to impact New York City beginning early Sunday, January 25, through Monday, January 26, bringing heavy snowfall, strong winds, and dangerous travel conditions. To keep our staff safe and maintain services, our district office will be open and fully operational remotely on Monday, January 26, and we plan to reopen in person on Tuesday, January 27. Please prepare in advance, limit travel during the storm, and check on elderly or vulnerable neighbors.

Stay safe and warm, and remember that our office is always a phone call, email, or visit away.

Seawright said, “We need to match the pride that we feel for the numerous contributions of older adults to New York State with the high-quality services that they so urgently deserve.”

Assembly Member Rebecca Seawright, Chair of the Assembly Committee on Aging, recently hosted a packed senior services forum at the Carter Burden Network with Greg Olsen, Acting Director of the New York State Office for the Aging. The event brought together community leaders, advocates, and older New Yorkers to discuss aging services, fraud prevention, housing security, and state initiatives supporting seniors.

Seawright said, "We need to match the pride that we feel for the numerous contributions of older adults to New York State with the high-quality services that they so urgently deserve." She highlighted rising elder fraud, new programs like NYSOFA's SilverShield, and updates to rent freeze eligibility, while Olsen shared statewide efforts to expand caregiver support, elder abuse prevention, and aging-in-place services.

The forum also offered residents access to resources, including rent freeze enrollment, SNAP, HEAP, and other benefits.
