ASSEMBLYMAN MATT SLATER

Helped deliver over $16 million for Southeast & Brewster

Assemblyman Matt Slater is Fighting for Southeast & Brewster

“It’s critical that our emergency services personnel have quality, top-of-the-line equipment to best provide for the safety of our community. I appreciate Assemblyman Slater for helping bring Putnam County this much-needed funding.”

—Putnam County Executive Kevin Byrne

Assemblyman Slater helped secure state funding for important projects in Southeast and Brewster. This funding will improve local roads and invest in our community, while easing the burden on property taxpayers.

- $746,000 to repair and resurface Southeast’s roads¹
- $14.8 million to resurface Route 22²
- $98,000 to repair and resurface Brewster’s roads³
- $20,000 for the Brewster Public Library⁴
- $81,500 is slated for the Brewster Police Department⁵
- $119,000 for the Putnam County Sheriff’s Office to purchase new technology and equipment⁶
- $255,000 for Putnam County 911⁷
