

During this first term, I've been fighting for a better life for the residents of Dutchess County. I am proud of our accomplishments in the district and in Albany. Here are some highlights.

Sincerely,

Anil Beephan, Jr.

MELANIE'S LAW PASSED!

After a long and hard-fought three years, I am beyond proud to say that Melanie's Law has passed both the New York State Assembly and Senate and is now heading to the governor's desk for approval. I want to send a heartfelt thank you to Cheryl for bravely sharing her story with us and allowing us to champion this vital and common-sense legislation. Your courage has been the driving force behind this achievement, and may Melanie always be remembered as an angel for all domestic violence victims.¹

HONORING HEROES

With my partners in Albany, I've been able to help show recognition and community pride through events like road rededications in honor of notable residents in Dutchess County's history, like Wappinger Chief Daniel Nimham and local veteran Cpl. Derick Franklin Brinckerhoff.²

PROTECTION FROM OVERCHARGES

Back in the district, my team and I coordinated with Central Hudson customer service representatives to discuss overbilling issues related to utilities, and I'm incredibly thankful for all the hard work from my team and theirs on that day.³

FIGHTING FOR FIRST RESPONDERS

I joined FASNY leadership in Washington D.C. to meet with Hudson Valley congressmen to discuss the detrimental impact the new OSHA proposal will have on our volunteer emergency services.

THE FIGHT AGAINST CONGESTION PRICING

We fought against the state's push for congestion pricing and introduced a package of bills that included financial relief for medical patients, first responders and essential workers.⁵

Assembly member Anil Beephan of the 105th district sponsored the bill that aimed to allow congestion pricing exemptions for first responders.

SGT. JAMES G. SWEENEY MEMORIAL BRIDGE

This year, we officially unveiled the Sgt. James G. Sweeney Memorial Bridge, honoring our fallen trooper. Joined by his wife Noreen, his family, and the law enforcement community, we commemorated his service and sacrifice. I am proud that this was my first piece of legislation passed in the Assembly last year ⁴; it is a tribute to Jim and to all those affected by 9/11-related illnesses.

FIGHTING FOR ECONOMIC RELIEF

We're fighting for economic freedom in this state with expanded tax relief to seniors⁶ and a permanent 2% property tax cap.⁷
