Dear Friend,

Summer's coming. It's the perfect time for kids to grab a book and dig into reading. In fact, studies show that children who continue to read during the summer perform better in school in the fall.

To encourage youngsters to get excited about reading, I am holding a Summer Reading Challenge, in coordination with the New York State Library. "Dig Into Reading" is this year's motto for children, and "Beneath the Surface" is the slogan for tweens, both headlining the opportunity to explore New York State's history, culture and diversity. I've listed some suggestions. Head to your local library for more.

Here's how the challenge works: Mark the enclosed calendar for each day in July and August that your child reads with you, someone else or alone. When you've marked off 40 or more days, your child has earned a New York State Assembly Excellence in Reading Certificate. Fill out the back of this brochure and return it, along with the calendar, to me. I'll ensure that your child receives a certificate.

Thank you and happy reading!

Sincerely,

Member of Assembly
