Dear Friend,

When school lets out for the summer, I encourage you to continue learning by picking up a book. Reading is fun! Books can immerse children in far-off worlds, new characters and thrilling narratives. To that end, I'm sponsoring a Summer Reading Challenge to inspire kids to read on a regular basis throughout the summer break.

This year's theme is "A Universe of Stories." Books can lead to new summer adventures, to dream big and to discover new interests. They might even help build new bridges between cultures or to volunteer in a program that helps improve the world around us. More information is available at your local library or visit www.nysl.nysed.gov/libdev/summer/explore.htm for a list of book suggestions.

Here's how the challenge works: Mark the enclosed calendar for each day in July and August each time you read with someone or on your own. Once you have marked off 40 days or more, return the completed form to my office, and I'll send you a New York State Excellence in Reading certificate.

Thank you, and happy reading!

Sincerely,

Assemblyman Angelo Santabarbara
