Assemblyman Angelo Santabarbara

Dear Friend,

The American flag has stood as a symbol of freedom and justice for more than 240 years. Through war and peace, the sight of the American flag has shown friend and foe alike that the spirit of democracy lives on.

No other symbol captures the power and glory of the land of opportunity like the American flag. It has flown as our national emblem in some form without interruption since 1777.

The American flag is a living piece of history and a source of pride and unity for all Americans. The Stars and Stripes embodies the very qualities that make our nation great: liberty, justice, freedom, patriotism and national purpose.

I have prepared this brochure to help you better understand the significance of the American flag and its customs. As always, if you have any questions, I'm here to help. Call me, send me an email or visit my website at anytime.

Sincerely,

Angelo Santabarbara

OUR AMERICAN FLAG

The origins of the Stars and Stripes are deeply ingrained in American folklore. It is widely believed that Betsy Ross made the first American flag. However, various towns in colonial America have claimed to be its birthplace.

We know that on June 14, 1777, the Continental Congress adopted the Stars and Stripes as the official flag of the United States of America.

The Declaration of Independence made this resolution necessary. Previously, each colony had its own flag, which they flew on colonial vessels. England considered these armed vessels pirate ships and hanged their crews if they were captured.

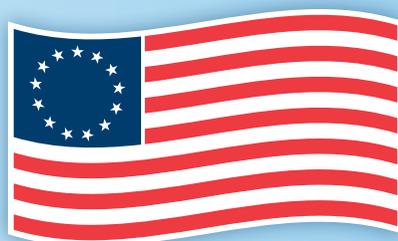

The American flag was designed to represent the new union of the 13 original states: It would have 13 stripes, alternating red and white, and 13 stars, white on a blue field.

One of the first flags had the stars arranged in a circle, based on the idea that all colonies were equal. The 13 stripes, resting side by side, symbolized the struggle for independence. The flag's color scheme also has symbolic meaning: red stands for valor, white signifies purity and blue represents loyalty.

In 1818, after a few design changes, Congress decided to retain the flag's original 13 stripes and add new stars to reflect each new state that entered the union.

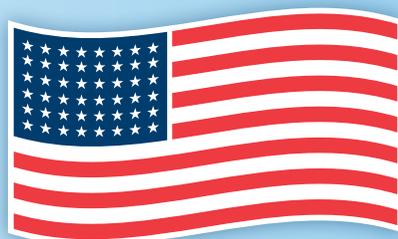

Since then, Americans have fought for and died to preserve the ideals of democracy represented by the flag.
