Since day one in Albany, Assemblyman Steve Hawley has fought to save our family farms.

As a former owner and operator of his family farm in Batavia, longtime member of the Assembly Agriculture Committee and past President of the Genesee County Farm Bureau, Assemblyman Steve Hawley knows that government has no business telling our farms how to operate.

After speaking to countless local farmers and farm workers, and holding an open roundtable in his district, Steve debated passionately on the Assembly floor against the bill and voted NO on the “Farmworkers Fair Labor Practices Act” (A.8419).

STEVE VOTED AGAINST:

- ▼ Expensive government mandates that could cripple small farms
- ▼ Mandating when laborers can work – handcuffing farmers when they need help the most
- ▼ Creating a wage board with union influence

We know what's best for our producers, not government.
