I know that small businesses are the lifeblood of our local economy - providing valuable jobs to our neighbors, locally-crafted goods and services, and resources to support our schools and first responders. I have been a tireless advocate for small businesses that make our communities the unique places we call home."

Angelo J. Morinello

For too long, small businesses in our state have been stifled by high taxes¹, over-regulation, and oppressive mandates².

Angelo is standing up for small businesses by:

- ✓ Supporting the "Red Tape Reduction Act," which cuts harmful state regulations and lets our job-producers thrive. (A.3552)
- ✓ Investing in rural communities to create jobs and promote economic growth. (A.2552)
- ✓ Fighting to eliminate burdensome regulations and red-tape on small businesses. (A.4717)
- ✓ Establishing new tax credits to help small businesses upgrade their facilities. (A.3566)
- ✓ Issuing tax credits and hiring assistance under the NY Food Insecurity, Farm Resiliency and Rural Poverty Initiative. (A.6391)
- ✓ Opposing regulations on farmers that increase the price of food³.
